

PAWPRINTS 2007-2008

Yearbook Illustrations

Every year we print black & white drawings on the class pages in the yearbook. These illustrations can be about school life or the children's favorite 'school' interests. The only rules are that the pictures be:

- ✎ Simple, line drawings without a lot of shading or solid areas
- ✎ Done in black felt-tip or marker (NO pencil or crayon)
- ✎ Artist's name and class printed clearly at the bottom of the drawing

Only one picture per student will be published, so make it your best effort!
